DEAR PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES,

How will you Save Darfur?

The genocide in Darfur continues. As many as 400,000 people killed. 2.5 million displaced. Violence and death stalk them even in refugee camps. Still, after months of talk, the peace process has stalled. The Sudanese government refuses to accept additional peacekeepers.

We, the undersigned Iowa caucus-goers, call on you to:

- Commit to outlining and implementing a clear policy to address the crisis in Darfur during your first 100 days in office
- Make ending the genocide in Darfur—and the prevention of future mass atrocities—a priority of your campaign
- Insist that President Bush engage in full-time, active diplomacy to end the genocide

SINCERELY,
